Product description

• The V-TAC floor lamp with a modern form combines a minimalist design with a gently rounded lampshade, creating an elegant setting for contemporary interiors. The lampshade made of acrylic disperses the light evenly and sideways, which is the result of a wide lighting angle of 280 degrees. The lamp body is a combination of ceramics and metal, which gives the lamp a modern and subtle look. The built-in LED module with a power of 10W generates 1200 lumens and provides a warm light color of 3000K. The lamp is intended for indoor use and is perfect for bedrooms, living rooms, offices and decorative spaces. Thanks to its slim silhouette and elegant finish, it is a functional lighting element and a modern decoration at the same time.
