Product description

• The V-TAC 1200x300 surface-mounted frame for mounting LED panels is a practical solution for mounting all LED panels in places where flush-mounted installation is not possible. The structure made of durable materials ensures the stability of the panel, and the aesthetic white finish harmonizes with most ceilings. A simple assembly system makes installation quick and hassle-free. The frame was designed specifically for LED panels with dimensions 1200x300mm.
